Give to the Postal Employees' Relief Fund

Every year, hundreds of postal employees and retirees are devastated by hurricanes, earthquakes, floods, tornadoes, wildfires or home fires. To help rebuild or repair homes and property following insurance and Federal Emergency Management Agency payments, the Postal Employees' Relief Fund (PERF) — operated jointly by postal unions, management associations and the Postal Service — helps ease the suffering by administering grants.

Established in 1990 during the aftermath of Hurricane Hugo and the California earthquakes, PERF has made it possible for our postal family to generously contribute more than $15 million in grants to 3,000 victims. Grants to Hurricane Katrina victims exceeded $8 million, so your generosity — more than ever — is needed by your postal family.
