

The Mail Handler

The Quarterly Publication of the National Postal Mail Handlers Union

Fall 2011

Contents

3 President's Report

President Hegarty's assessment of how Mail Handlers—like their fellow public employees—are under violent attack

5 Secretary-Treasurer's Report

National Secretary-Treasurer Gardner describes "the perfect storm" of antiunion attacks where the NPMHU faces its adversaries.

6 2011 Negotiations in Full Swing

A review of the state of our current negotiations and the process for the arbitration alternative to a mutual agreement

7 Contract Updates

Frequent Contract Updates are posted to keep Mail Handlers abreast of the important issues of the contract negotiations.

8 Postal Service Launches Assault on Mail Processing Network

The USPS "Network Optimization Plan" poses the greatest threat of devastation so far of its many plans to restructure the mail processing and transportation network.

12 Committee On The Future Of The Union

The report of the Committee's most recent meeting.

15 Postal Unions Join Forces on Television and Print Media Campaign

The NPMHU joins with the other postal unions to develop print and media ads to raise public awareness on important postal legislative issues .

16 Save America's Postal Service

NPMHU local unions across the country rallied on September 27 about Postal Service legislation in Congress.

18 Semi-Annual Meeting of the Local Unions

Read about the recent national gathering of NPMHU officers and representatives.

22 NPMHU Financial Statements for 2010

23 Current Wage Charts for Mail Handlers

24 Official Convention Call

The Official notification of the NPMHU's 2012 National Convention in Portland, Oregon.

On the Cover: Become a Union activist and encourage others to take action to Save America's Postal Service