

NPHMU Delegates

Guest Speakers

The delegates heard from a number of other distinguished speakers throughout the week, including AFL-CIO President Rich Trumka, Democratic strategist Donna Brazile, Secretary of Labor Hilda Solis, progressive commentator Ed Schultz, host of “Dirty Jobs” Mike Rowe,

NBA great Magic Johnson, Rep. Luis Gutierrez (D-IL), and many other Members of Congress, all of whom have continually demonstrated their commitment to, and support for, organized labor. When the Convention business was concluded on Thursday, September 15, all of the delegates left the Convention Hall with the knowledge that they had performed a valuable service to their members and to the labor movement in general by taking part in this important Union function.
