ONE HUNDRED YEARS AND STILL GOING STRONG

Dear Members,

We are pleased to send you this special Convention issue of The Mail Handler. I want to take the time to thank all of the Mail Handler delegates who participated in this historic event, as we celebrated the 100th Anniversary of the NPMHU. A special thank you goes out to all of the Union officers and representatives who served on the various Committees to ensure that the business of the Convention was properly taken care of.

As you will see from the various articles enclosed, there were a number of important items of business to attend to at this Convention, including: nominations for the election of your national officers, constitutional amendments to debate and vote on, and resolutions to guide, educate and inform the membership on a number of critical issues, just to name a few. All in all, it was a very busy week, but also a very productive one.

I wish to thank the delegates for their faith in me, as I was reelected by acclamation to another four-year term. At the Convention I pledged to work just as hard during this term, as I have during the past ten years to keep this great Union moving forward. It is not a one man show however, and I am fortunate to have the help and support of NPMHU Officers, and members from around the country. We have a number of challenges that lie ahead, and we are preparing to meet those challenges head on. Working together, we will continue to move forward with the proud tradition of excellent representation that has embodied the NPMHU for the past 100 years.
