Support the Postal Employees' Relief Fund

On Sept. 28, Hurricane Ian came ashore on Florida's Gulf Coast as a monstrous Category 4 storm, one of the strongest ever to hit the U.S. The storm flooded homes on both Florida coasts. Property damage is estimated to be in the billions.

As Floridians pick up the pieces, they face the expense of building back stronger in order to withstand the next storm. Building costs in Florida are higher than the U.S. average as a result of conforming to tougher building codes.

The Postal Employees' Relief Fund provides tax-free relief grants to active and retired postal employees to help reestablish their homes. PERF stands ready to provide assistance to those impacted by Ian. Please make a donation to help members of our postal family in Florida.
