

The Mail Handler

The Quarterly Publication of the National Postal Mail Handlers Union

Summer 2011

Contents

3 President's Report

Read National President John Hegarty's outline of what to expect during the next round of negotiations for our new collective bargaining agreement.

4 Secretary-Treasurer's Report

National Secretary-Treasurer Mark Gardner exhorts all of us to speak out and take action to resist unwarranted attacks on public employees and the labor unions that represent them.

5 Rally for Wisconsin

See pictures of some of our local unions who stepped up to protest the legislative injustices forced on other public employees in our public union family.

6 Semi-Annual Meeting of the Local Unions

Read about the recent national gathering of NPMHU officers and representatives.

10 NPMHU PAC

The Union's Political Action Committee fund is growing. If you are not yet a member, consider signing up for a reasonable contribution every pay period.

12 Legislative Update

Read this review to learn more about the legislation that may affect mail handlers and their families.

14 Legislative Conference

Read about the Legislative Conference attended by many local unions and of their efforts to bring our message to members of Congress on Capitol Hill.

21 Field Negotiating Committee

Read about the extensive preparations for our upcoming negotiations with the Postal Service for a successor labor contract.

22 Committee on the Future of the NPMHU

Read the reports of the Committee on the many developments affecting our Union.

25 Mail Handlers Across the Country

See pictures of various NPMHU meetings and functions across the nation.

On the Cover: Members of NPMHU Local 306 voice their oppositions to the draconian, anti-union legislation rammed through the Wisconsin legislature.
